

Babysitting

I can be responsible and serve my family by helping care for others.

“Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. “Honor your father and mother,” which is the first commandment with promise: “that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth.” And you, fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the training and admonition of the Lord

Ephesians 6:1-4

But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:8

Be responsible:

We are leaving you in charge of our most precious assets. We expect you to be responsible, loving, kind, and patient, and to follow all instructions we leave with you.

Watch and Play:

You should know where everyone is at all times. You should be interacting with the children, and not separated from them by devices or rooms.

Keep the house Clean:

The house should always look better when we get home than when we left. It is your responsibility to make sure the children clean up after themselves.

Call Us:

Please call if anyone is in danger or causing others to be in danger.

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.

Colossians 3:23-24
