

How to behave when mom and dad leave someone else in charge.

Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves.

Romans 12:10

Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves.

Philippians 2:3

When we leave someone else in charge of your care, we expect you to treat them with the same respect you treat us. We expect you to be on your very best behavior whenever you are not with us.

- You are to treat everyone with respect and business.
- honor at all times, but especially when we are not with you.
- You are to stay inside if the caregiver is under 18 years of age.
- You are to listen and obey.
- You are to clean up after yourself.
- You are to go to bed when told.
- No cooking without permission.
- There is to be no fighting or monkey
- No leaving without permission.
